Subject: Request for Extension on Week-3 assignment.

Dear Professor parvathy,

I hope you are doing well. My name is Daivansh and I am a student of youCS&IT with roll number 2620090046.

I am writing this email to apologize for not being able to submit the Week-3 assignments, which was supposed to be submitted on [original deadline date]. Unfortunately, due to [brief, honest reason for missing the deadline – e.g., a medical emergency, unexpected travel, etc.], I have not been able to complete the assignment on time.

It is not my intention to miss the deadlines for your assignments, however, this was an unforeseen circumstance that I could not control or predict. I assure you that this will not happen again in the future, and I will try my best to adhere to the deadlines for all upcoming assignments.

In the meantime, I am trying to complete this assignment and hope to be able to submit it by [proposed deadline – ideally within 2-3 days]. Kindly consider my request for a temporary extension of the deadline for a day or two, so that I can submit an assignment that meets the standards of your class.

I understand that deadlines are an essential part of academic instruction as they promote a sense of urgency and equality among students, so I am willing to accept any applicable late submission penalties that may apply in this case. In addition, if you need any additional information or documents to approve my request, I will be glad to provide them at your earliest convenience.

Kindly let me know if my request is accepted or if there is anything else I can do to assist you. Please accept my sincere apologies for not being able to meet the deadline for this assignment.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Daivansh
